Hargus - Hominy Watershed OK'd By NR Department

Fred E. Morr, director of the Ohio Department of Natural Resources, today announced that he has approved an application for planning assistance under Public Law 566 on the Hargus and Hominy Creek Watershed in Pickaway County.

This application has been forwarded to the Soil Conservation Service.

Director Morr's approval followed the endorsement of this application by the Ohio Water Commission after a public hearing and review of the local problems.

"The small watershed program is recognized as an essential part in preserving our streams and watersheds, yet utilizing them to their fullest capacity to meet the goals and needs of people who reside there," said Director Morr. He added, "the Hargus and Hominy Creek application for planning assistance reflects the local leadership's initiative and desire to solve local problems."

THE Watershed Protection and Flood Prevention Act (Public Law 566) authorizes the Secretary of Agriculture to give technical and financial help to local project. The watershed projects are for flood prevention, fish and wildlife development, agricultural water management, recreation and municipal and industrial water supply (both present and future).

The application for planning assistance on the Hargus and Hominy Creek Watershed was reviewed in the field by the Ohio Department of Natural Resources Reviewing Team Sept. 3. A public hearing was held that night at the 3-H and Grange Building at the Pickaway County Fairgrounds in Circleville.

Other State and Federal agencies participating in the field review and public hearing included the Ohio Department of Health, the Soil Conservation Service, the Ohio Soil and Water Conservation Committee, the Agricultural Extension Service and the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers.

Sponsors of the application are the County Commissioners and the Soil and Water Conservation District of Pickaway County, Washington Township Trustees and the City of Circleville. Those in attendance at the public hearing from the watershed community included in addition to the sponsors: landowners from Circleville and rural areas, local businessmen, American Red Cross, a land developer, Circleville and Washington Township Trustees, Ohio Department of Highways - Division 6, Farmers Home Administration, and the Agricultural Stabilization Conservation Service. Nearly 85 people attended the public hearing.

Other interested persons either attended the hearing or were interviewed in the field to determine the nature and magnitude of flooding and allied water problems, possible solutions to these respective problems, interest among the local citizenry and a general idea of the economic feasibility.

Cuban MIG Flown Home Security Breach Is Questioned

HOMESTEAD AIR FORCE BASE, Fla. (AP) — A Russian-built MIG fighter which eluded U.S. defenses and landed near President Nixon's Air Force One jetliner has been flown back to Cuba.

In Washington the question was raised in Congress how the aircraft, carrying loaded cannon and machine guns, was able to breach a supposed security network at a time when the presidential plane was waiting to take Nixon back to Washington from his Biscayne retreat.

A Defense Department spokesman said Tuesday that the fighter, piloted by a defecting Cuban pilot, flew too low most of the way to be spotted by ground radar, and added that radar picket planes normally aloft were not in the air when the jet fighter slipped in Sunday.

The Miami Herald said the picket flights had been canceled for the first time in eight years because of a military economy drive.

A ferry pilot attired in a Cuban military uniform arrived with five Cuban Air Force personnel aboard a Cuban commercial airliner Tuesday to fly the MIG home.

The pilot edged the snub-nosed fighter into the sky at 3:45 p.m.

Seconds later two sleek F104 jets streaked into the air to give it close escort out of American territory.

The Pentagon said Monday the defecting pilot, Lt. Eduardo Guerra Jimenez, evaded U.S. radar almost until landing by flying at altitudes of 30 to 40 feet.

"We have known for some time that our low level radar capability is somewhat limited," said Jerry Friedheim, deputy assistant secretary of defense.

Rhodes Names Trio To Workmen Boards

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. James A. Rhodes announced Tuesday three six-year appointments to district workmen's compensation boards of review.

They were Thaddeus N. Walinski, a Toledo attorney, as chairman of the Toledo district; Russell E. Yeazel, Miamiburg, chairman of the Dayton board; and Christopher J. French, Seven Hills, to the Cleveland board as an employee representative.

Claim General Lied About Guns

Barbara Shutt Clings To Life; Still 'Critical'

Hidden Sedatives Are Blamed In Suicide Try

CINCINNATI (AP) — Barbara Jean Shutt, convicted Monday of murdering her foster mother, clung to life today in General Hospital after taking an overdose of drugs.

Miss Shutt, 23, confined to the hospital's intensive care unit, was in "critical" condition and a team of eight doctors was using drugs and a respirator in efforts to keep her alive.

Hospital spokesmen declined to say whether the 88-pound part time school teacher took enough of an overdose to be fatal but a doctor said "it was enough to stop her respiratory system. Then you have the question, if she hadn't had medical care would she have started breathing again."

Miss Shutt, convicted Monday night of the murder of her foster mother, Dr. Jane Shutt, 43, was found unconscious in her cell Tuesday morning at the Hamilton County Jail.

Dr. Frank Cleveland, the county coroner, said tests revealed Miss Shutt had taken a quantity of pills, of which "ten tablets would be fatal."

Deputy Sheriff Harry D. Culler said two slits were found in Miss Shutt's brassiere and "We think that is where it could have been concealed."

Her father, Charles Shutt, 75, said "she gave no indication she planned to do this."

A jury of seven women and five men had recommended mercy after convicting her of first-degree murder, saving her from the electric chair.

She was to return to Common Pleas Court today at 11 a. m. for sentencing.

Her attorney, Bernard Gilday, and a matron, were unable to arouse Miss Shutt at 9:15 a. m. Tuesday. He had called to discuss her appeal.

Circleville Council Approves Three Ordinances; Resolution Held Over

Circleville City Council approved three ordinances and held a resolution to a first reading during a brief session Tuesday in which it took longer for Clerk Robert Shadley to read the minutes of the previous meeting than it did to conduct official business.

The city fathers approved by a 6-1 vote an ordinance which makes it illegal to advertise the price of lens in eye glasses. By a unanimous vote they approved an ordinance to replace 100 old incandescent 2,500 lumen street lamps with new 8,000 lumen mercury vapor lights.

The solons also unanimously approved an ordinance permitting the city service director to accept bids for a new 1 1/2 ton flatbed truck chassis.

Held to a first reading was a resolution permitting Mayor Richard Gerhardt to apply for a loan or grant for a new activated sludge treatment sewerage plant for the city.

THE ordinance prohibiting advertising prices of lens in glasses was submitted by councilman David Goldschmidt.

David Smith, a local optometrist, spoke out in favor of the ordinance. William Bennett, secretary of the Ohio Optometric Assn. was on hand to explain the ordinance to the councilmen.

Fourth Ward Councilman Boyd Horn cast the lone dissenting vote.

Councilman David Crawford explained the street lighting ordinance will enable the city to complete the three year replacement program in two years.

He stated the work would not be completed until close to the end of the current year and the lighting could be paid out of next year's budget.

The service department will trade a 1959 model truck for the new truck. It was explained by Mayor Gerhardt that a dump bed already owned by the city will be used on the new truck.

THE resolution, which the solons held for further study, authorized the mayor to make application to the department of Housing and Urban Development and the Ohio Water Development Authority for a loan or grant for construction of a new sewage plant. Councilman Noble Barr moved the resolution be held to its first reading.

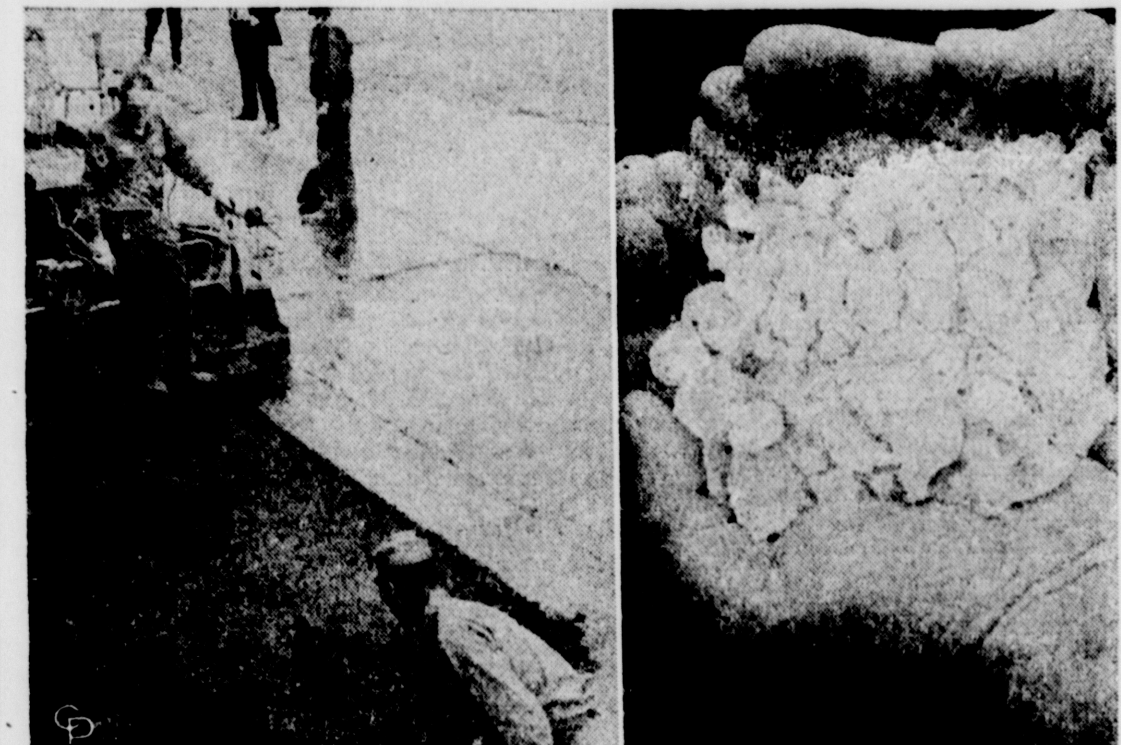

The action on the ordinances and resolution was completed in half an hour. It took Shadley over 25 minutes to read the minutes of the previous meeting.

Following the legislative portion of the meeting, Councilman Harold Clifton asked that a meeting be held to determine how funds earmarked for repair of city owned buildings would be used.

His request was prompted by a proposed ordinance not read last night. The ordinance, if introduced, will call for a remodeling of the front doors of the fire Department to better accommodate the equipment.

Replacing and enlarging the doors is expected to cost about $3,000. Clifton said that $7,500 had been appropriated at the beginning of the year for city buildings maintenance. He said it was his impression that all of the money had been intended for use on renovation of City Hall.

Long an advocate of restoring the old building because of its historical value, Clifton stated that some of the exterior work (Continued on Page 2)

Mishandling Of Cyclamate Report May Shake Up FDA

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Food and Drug Administration's handling of studies on the artificial sweetener cyclamate may lead to reorganization of the agency, says Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare Robert H. Finch.

"I am not at all satisfied with the present situation there," Finch said in an interview Tuesday. "I think it's just inevitable that we're going to have some rather substantial reorganization of procedures and personnel" in the FDA.

Nearly a year after FDA studies indicated cyclamates can cause genetic breakdowns in rats, FDA Commissioner Herbert L. Ley Jr. announced last week the agency was initiating a hurry-up study of its effects on other animals.

Finch said the FDA had come up with varying assessments of side effects on the estimated 175 million Americans who take the sweetener in products ranging from bacon to diet foods and drinks.

"We have appeared to waffle on it," he said. "Some have been overzealous, saying 'Sure, this may not be final or conclusive... but we still ought to run up the flag and sound the bugle,' and others have gone too far the other way."

Finch referred to a widely publicized experiment conducted by Dr. Jacqueline Verrett, an FDA scientist, in which 15 percent of chicks hatched from eggs injected with cyclamates had birth defects.

Dr. Verrett was quoted as advising pregnant women to use foods containing cyclamates with extreme care unless further studies removed all doubt about their effects.

Ley has emphasized the studies still are tentative and that effects of the sweetener on lower animals might not be the same as its effects on man.

Cyclamates are found in such foods as bacon, chewable vitamins for children, medicinal syrups, gelatin and frozen desserts as well as diet foods and soft drinks. The FDA estimates its consumption will exceed 21 million pounds this year, with sales estimated at nearly $300 million a year.

The order followed a study last December by the nongovernmental National Academy of Science which concluded it had no "serious suspicions" about the sweetener's effect on humans, but recommended maximum intake levels for adults and children.

Grand Jury Gets Obscene Film Case

CINCINNATI (AP) — Judge Thomas Nurre overruled a motion to quash evidence and sent to the grand jury Tuesday the case against exhibitors of the controversial film "Vixen."

Nurre took the action during a three-hour hearing in Hamilton County Municipal Court on two charges of possession of an obscene film against Malibu, Inc.

Gene Mesh, attorney for Malibu which operates the Guild Cinema where "Vixen" was shown, contended that evidence should be quashed because copies of the film had been confiscated illegally from the theater.

Lt. Charles Black of the Cincinnati Police Vice Control Bureau, and John McNally, liaison officer for the prosecutor's office, both testified at the hearing that they thought the film was obscene.

Mesh argued that neither official was qualified to determine if the film is obscene, and added that the film has been shown in 40 states and is currently showing in nearby Dayton, Ohio.

A civil suit based on nuisance law has been filed against the firm and producers of the film.

5 Police Cadets Injured In Fight

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Five Cleveland police cadets who are students at Cuyahoga Community College's new metropolitan campus were injured slightly Tuesday in a fight at a boycotted campus snack bar.

One cadet said the trouble started when a student at the entrance told him he could not enter. He said about 50 students were involved in the fracas.

Dr. Charles Pappas, campus president, said the Afro-American Society, which has led a protest against high prices and poor quality food, denied involvement in the fight.

Apollo Crew Visits Paris During Tour

PARIS (AP) — America's Apollo 11 moon men came to Paris today on their tour of 23 nations and were welcomed, in a burst of sunshine as "heroes of the greatest adventure that mankind has ever known."

Jacques Baume, secretary of state attached to the premier's office, greeted the three astronauts and their wives at Orly Airport on their arrival from Madrid.

About 200 youngsters from the American School gave Neil A. Armstrong, Edwin E. Aldrin and Michael Collins a big cheer as they walked up the red carpet.

Collins told Baume he was particularly happy to return to France "because my wife Patricia and I met and married here."

The astronauts had a busy day planned in Paris.

On the schedule were a reception at the town hall, lunch with Premier Jacques Chaban-Delmas, a meeting with President Georges Pompidou at the Elysee Palace, a news conference and a showing of their moon trip film for a television show during the evening.

A 15-car motorcade took the visitors from the airport to their hotel on the Place de la Concorde. Patches of Parisians sometimes three and four deep waved at the motorcade but seemed a little mystified because the moon men were in a closed car and not easily recognizable.

Police Chief Says Weapons Were For Army

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chicago Police Supt. James Conlisk says former Army Provost Marshal Maj. Gen. Carl C. Turner lied when he testified city authorities knowingly gave him 397 confiscated guns for his personal use.

Turner is a central figure in a Senate subcommittee investigations of a probe into charges a ring of enlisted men, including former Army Sgt. Maj. William O. Woodridge, was engaged in a large-scale graft ring.

In his testimony Tuesday, Turner was quizzed only on charges he obtained the confiscated guns under pretense they were for Army use and then sold some of them for his own profit.

He said, however, Conlisk knew he wanted the guns for his own collection, although he signed statements at the time affirming the weapons were for the Army.

Conlisk said in Chicago Tuesday Turner's testimony was "untrue." The superintendent also supported the testimony given by police Lt. Paul T. Duellman, who told the subcommittee Tuesday he showed Turner the guns, but never heard him say they were for his own use.

Until this week the main thrust of the subcommittee probe had been into allegations Woodridge and a band of career sergeants had looted Army recreation clubs, manipulated currency, smuggled liquor and bribed officers.

Woodridge, who is scheduled to testify Friday, told a reporter he will invoke the 5th Amendment and refuse to answer questions.

Bomb Blast Hits N.Y. Draft Center

NEW YORK (AP) — An explosion rocked the Armed Forces Induction Center in lower Manhattan late Tuesday night, shattering more than 40 windows on the fifth floor and knocking bricks and masonry from the building.

No one was injured in the blast although there were several persons in the lobby of the building at 11:25 p.m. when the explosion occurred.

Deputy Fire Chief Arthur Lauffer said, "There was a terrific explosion. It devastated the fifth floor and blew out partitions." He said the device had been placed in a rest room.

The area affected by the blast houses the center's personnel and psychological testing offices. It did not disturb any of the files which contain the records of thousands of draftees.

The building at 39 Whitehall St. in the financial district, is the city's major induction center. It was the target of a bomb blast on March 30, 1968, that also shattered numerous windows.

There was no immediate explanation for Tuesday's blast.

Evaluate Bids For Watershed

DEFIANCE, Ohio (AP) — The Maumee Conservancy District in Defiance is evaluating bids opened for the second 10 miles of construction on the Little Auglaize River Watershed Project. It was announced today by Raymond S. Brown, state conservationist for the U.S. Soil Conservation Service.

The project is being carried out under provisions of the Watershed Protection and Flood Prevention Act in Mercer, Paulding, Putnam and Van Wert counties. The first 10 miles now under construction involves movement of more than 1.2 million cubic yards of earth.

The project is part of the Northwest Ohio Water Development Plan developed by the Ohio Department of Natural Resources. One of the principle features is development of a wildlife demonstration area along a section of the new channel.

U.S. Navy To Turn Over River Boats To Saigon

SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. Navy will transfer 80 river patrol boats to the Vietnamese Navy Friday in the largest single turnover of naval material in the war, South Vietnamese military headquarters announced today.

A U.S. Navy spokesman said the turnover is part of the U.S. program to "Vietnamize" the war so that more American forces can be withdrawn.

A South Vietnamese spokesman said the 80 boats would be divided equally among four river patrol groups which will form a task force to be commissioned at ceremonies Friday.

The turnover will bring to 229 the total number of U.S. Navy craft transferred to the Vietnamese since June, 1968, or about 40 per cent of the 550 American boats patrolling South Vietnam's inland waterways. The other 321 are to be turned over during the next nine months.

The U.S. Command says 33,800 American Navy men now are in Vietnam. President Nixon has announced a 5,000-man cut for the Navy as part of the 35,000-man withdrawal scheduled to be completed by Dec. 15.

Meanwhile, Premier Tran Thien Kiem predicted today that there will be no "breakthrough" in the war until a new supreme leader emerges in Hanoi.

Asked about Senate Republican Leader Hugh Scott's statement Monday that there might be a breakthrough in the war in the next 60 to 90 days, Kiem replied:

"Now there is a collective leadership in North Vietnam, and there must be some time before anyone can make a decision, it depends on who will be emerging as the leader of North Vietnam."

Western observers do not expect the power struggle anticipated in the wake of President Ho Chi Minh's death to crystallize for some months. They believe the contest will be between Le Duan, the pro-Moscow first secretary of the North Vietnamese Communist party, and Truong Chinh, another politburo member who is pro-Peking.

Woodridge to refuse to testify because he did not believe he would be given a fair hearing by senators.

In his testimony Tuesday, Turner admitted that in 1968 he signed receipts four times at Chicago police headquarters stating that confiscated guns he had personally selected were to be used for Army training purposes.

And he testified he disassembled some of the weapons for parts, destroyed others, sold "the cream of the crop" to a North Carolina gun dealer and pocketed the money.

But over and over again Turner insisted: "Those weapons were not for the use of the Army, they (the Chicago police) were going to destroy them and they gave them to me personally."

He said Conlisk had assured him the receipts he was asked to sign were only a formality to meet the letter of the law.

Illinois law says all weapons seized by police are, after being used as evidence, to be either destroyed or given to the armed forces for training or other purposes.

Conlisk said in Chicago he believed Turner—who came to the city last year to represent the Army chief of staff during rioting in which U.S. troops were used—wanted the guns for official purposes.

Turner was questioned closely by senators looking for details of his gun deals.

But the general, who is a licensed gun dealer, said he has lost his only record book and does not have the information to answer questions.

Two Teachers At Confab On Science

Two Circleville teachers, Charles Clark and Louise Simpson, were among the twenty-three Ohio science teachers and supervisors who recently attended a drive-in conference at Ohio University to learn more about a proposed program to improve the teaching of junior high school science.

Dr. Ray Skinner Jr., of the College of Education faculty and conference director, said the program showed teachers how to use the Intermediate Science Curriculum Study materials developed at the University of Florida. The proposal has been submitted to the National Science Foundation for possible funding.

The program would permit 20 seventh grade science teachers and 10 science supervisors to attend a six weeks summer program, July 13 - Aug. 21, 1970, at Ohio University with an academic year follow-up.

"The participants would use the Intermediate Science Curriculum Study materials consisting of a three-year sequential science program for junior high students," Dr. Skinner said. "The entire program is laboratory centered and individualized so that each student completes the activities at a self-paced speed."

Content of the laboratory investigations involves physics concepts at grade seven, chemistry concepts at grade eight and a combination of earth science and biology concepts at grade nine.

Participants would use ISCS materials and perform all the laboratory work included in the seventh and eighth grade textbooks as well as take a modern physics course designed specifically for junior high school teachers. The last two weeks of the summer program would be spent with the teachers participating in micro-teaching sessions on television.

Dr. James Shipman, chairman of the university's physics department, described the content of the modern physics course. He has served as director of six National Science Foundation summer institutes at Ohio and would work with Dr. Jerry Adams to teach the physics course.

The teachers' schools would be expected to cooperate by introducing the seventh grade ISCS program into their consultive services to aid the academic year follow-up. Ohio University would provide consultive services to aid the implementation of the program into the schools.

Homecoming Title Sought By Local Girl

MARY MADER

Miss Mary Mader, 160 Pinkney St., is one of thirty young women at Miami University vying for the title of 1969 Homecoming Queen.

Miss Mader, a senior in the School of Education at Miami, is the candidate of Delta Delta Delta Sorority, having been selected by the membership to represent them in the King and Queen competition which annually serves as one of the highlights of the Homecoming Weekend.

In all, 53 young men and women will be in quest of the two titles, each having been named by their residence hall, sorority or fraternity, with the choice to be made through a campus-wide student election to be held on Oct. 8.

Homecoming Weekend will be held Oct. 10-11, with the introduction of the King and Queen being made on Friday evening at the traditional bonfire-pep rally. The official crowning will be done by University President Dr. Phillip R. Shriver, as a part of the half-time program of the Saturday afternoon football game between the unbeaten Redskins and Marshall University.

Each of the candidates will ride in the annual Homecoming Parade that will precede the game.

TATES Locke, successful Miami basketball coach, will serve as Grand Marshal of the Parade.

Other weekend activities scheduled are an Alumni Coffee Hour immediately following the football game at the Heritage Room of the University Center, with registration for all former students and visiting parents starting at 10 a.m. Saturday morning at both the Murstein Alumni Center and the University Center; resident hall and up-town merchant decorations and window displays; Friday night Program Board student dance in the Towers Room of the University Center and pre-rally snake dance through the Oxford campus.

The Homecoming program will be capped with a 9 p.m. concert by Sergio Mendes and Brazil '66 at Millett Hall on Saturday evening.

At Miami, Miss Mader, who is majoring in Spanish, in addition to her sorority affiliation, is currently Commander of the Angel Flight Unit, after having served as Information Officer for the women's auxiliary to the Air Force Reserve Officers Training Corps last year.

She is an Alumni Scholar and has been a member of several Panhellenic Committees, the coordinating sorority organization. With the Tri-Delta Sorority, she has been activities chairman and will be one of two cover girls on the Nov. 1 Miami football program, when the Redskins play the University of Toledo in the Parent's Day game. Miss Mader is a graduate of Circleville High School and a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln S. Mader.

Deaths And Funerals

INFANT RHYMER
Graveside services were held at Maple Hill Cemetery, Stoutsville, 3:30 p.m. today for Rachel Rymer, infant daughter of Paul and Jacquelyn Hughey Rymer, Amanda. Born 3 a.m. Tuesday and in Chillicothe Hospital, she died at 5 p.m.

Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Rymer, Stoutsville and Mr. and Mrs. Garland Hughey, Lancaster. Mrs. May Rymer, Stoutsville, great-grandmother, also survives.

Arrangements were completed by Defenbaugh Funeral Home.

MRS. LAURA E. VALENTINE
Mrs. Laura E. Valentine, 59, of Route 1, Kingston, died on arrival at Berger Hospital 8:15 p.m. Monday.

Born April 6, 1910 in Highland County, she was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Turner.

She was a member of Zion Baptist Church in Chillicothe and St. Elizabeth Order of Eastern Star No. 6, Chillicothe.

She is survived by her husband, Leonard Valentine Sr.; daughters, Mrs. Dorothy Burman, E. Orange, N. J.; Mrs. Evelyn Bryant, Mrs. Shirley Harrison, Mrs. Carolyn Morgan and Miss Marilyn Valentine, all of Columbus; three sons, Leonard Jr. with the U.S. Navy on N. Kingstown, R. I.; Russell E. with the U.S. Army in Ft. Jackson, S. C.; and Marlin, at home.

Also surviving are 13 grandchildren; a half-brother, Lester Robinson, New Vienna; a brother, Harley Lawson, Columbus; and two sisters, Mrs. Selicka Dent, Hillsboro and Miss Mary Turner, Columbus.

Services will be 1 p.m. Friday at the Zion Baptist Church with Rev. Harold Wingo officiating. Burial will be in Mt. Pleasant Cemetery.

Friends may call at the Helby Funeral Home, Chillicothe, beginning 4 p.m. Thursday until 10:30 a.m. Friday and beginning 11:30 a.m. at the church.

Eastern Star services will be 7 p.m. Thursday at the funeral home.

MR. ARTHUR ROHRER SR.

would have to be done soon or it would be too late.

THE councilman believes a three year program financed out of current revenue should be mapped out by the city fathers for the restoration of the city building.

Mayor Gerhardt agreed with Clifton that the building should be repaired and remodeled before it is too late. However, he differed with Clifton on the means of financing such a project.

The mayor contends that financing the project should be by a capital improvements methods, borrowing enough money to do the job in one project.

Gerhardt said the cheapest estimate he has had for the building is over $50,000. He explained that was much less expensive than building a new city hall, which could be expected to cost $250,000.

He explained the need for a wider entry to the fire department. There is presently six inches of clearance on each side when the big ladder truck goes through the door. Should the driver of the truck ever turn to, soon leaving the building, extensive damage could result both to the truck and to the entry.

The mayor also stated that the service department building on Ohio St. needs roofing repairs.

JOHN Jenkins, chairman of the safety committee said that the ordinance for widening the doors to the fire department was in his hands and would not be placed on council floor until his committee had studied it thoroughly.

He invited all members of council and the mayor to a safety committee meeting next Tuesday to discuss the work.

Berger Hosts Chamber Board

Chamber of Commerce directors were guests of Berger Hospital for their regular monthly meeting Tuesday noon.

James Stambaugh, Berger administrator, hosted the Board of Directors and gave a brief talk on the hospital and its progress over the past two years. John Barnes, Berger's director of fiscal activities, was a guest.

Chamber directors endorsed the upcoming bond issue for Circleville City Schools and agreed to purchase paper stickers for distribution in promotion of the bond issue.

Dick Plum, chairman of the education committee, announced that a mock interview session with rehabilitated patients of Chillicothe Veterans Hospital is planned for Oct. 23.

Directors also heard a report from Chaney Vance on the recent Agri-Business Tour and Pork Barbecue. Vance noted the event was the "most successful to date."

Proposed 1970 budget for the chamber was submitted by Howard Bobo. Approved as submitted, the total budget for 1970 was set at $9,500.

American B52 bombers flew only three missions against targets in South Vietnam in the 24-hour period ending at 2 p.m. today, a sharp scale-down from the recent average of eight missions per 24 hours.

"There's no significance I can see in it," a U.S. spokesman said. "It's just a matter of timing. We report B52 missions after they are flown."

Other sources indicated several B52 missions were flown today against the Ho Chi Minh Trail in Laos—an activity which the U.S. Command does not admit takes place—after good targets were turned up by intelligence.

There appears to be widespread support for doing something as soon as possible to alleviate flooding in the watershed and evidence of leaders willing to carry out such a project.

Directed by Mike Nichols, the color feature opens Thursday at the Cliftona with a co-feature "The Prime of Miss Jean Brodie" which features the top hit tune "Jean" by Rod McKuen. of the proposed improvements. Periodic flooding occurs along Hargus and Hominy Creeks which is particularly damaging to residential, commercial and industrial developments located on the flood plain in Circleville.

STREAM bank erosion and siltation are a major problem in the watershed, with some moderate to severe erosion occurring on sloping land adjacent to the stream channels.

Exclusion of livestock from woods is the major forest land management practice needed. Several small potential reservoir sites are located in the headwaters of the watershed, but there appears to be no feasible site along the main stream.

A feasible project to solve many of these watershed problems can probably be developed through a combination of land treatment, channel improvement and reservoirs.

There appears to be widespread support for doing something as soon as possible to alleviate flooding in the watershed and evidence of leaders willing to carry out such a project.

Studies under PL 566 should be coordinated with the local planning commission to obtain maximum benefits from flood reduction. Flood Plain Information studies by the Corps of Engineers should be requested by the City of Circleville and become a part of the planning process under PL 566.

assistance should be approved for further study by the Soil Conservation Service.

The Hargus and Hominy Creek watershed lies in eastern Pickaway County. The main stream is Hargus Creek, which is 6.6 miles long and drains approximately 20 square miles.

It rises near the Pickaway - Fairfield County line about eight miles northeast of Circleville to the Scioto River.

Hominy Creek, the main tributary, drains about six square miles along the southern edge of the watershed. Hominy Creek joins Hargus Creek at the east edge of Circleville.

The western part of the watershed is characterized by the relatively flat glacial till plain and is gently rolling. Further east the terrain becomes much steeper. The major soils in that part of the watershed subject to flooding are in the Fox - Genesee - Ross group and they are highly productive when flooding is controlled.

A few less extensive soils in this group such as Westland and Sloan have poor natural drainage caused by a high water table condition. These soils need artificial drainage. Upland soils in the flatter parts of the watershed consist mostly of Crosby and Brookston which when artificially drained are moderately high to high in productivity. The moderately productive Miami and Celina soils are dominant on the sloping land adjacent to the streams. Moderate to severe erosion is a problem in the Miami-Celina soil group.

Calm Returns To Las Vegas After 3 Nights Of Violence

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Relative calm returned to this desert casino center's dominantly Negro west side early today after three nights of widespread violence.

Police counted one shooting death and said another death may have been related to the unrest. More than 50 injuries and nearly 200 arrests were reported.

"The situation has improved considerably," a spokesman for Police Chief Pete Wither said. Sporadic outbreaks continued in the 40-block area.

Nearly 200 officers patrolled the area Tuesday evening, but as violence tapered off the force was cut to less than 100.

The most serious incident Tuesday night occurred when three Negroes tried to loot a liquor store.

A black security guard stationed inside fired two shots at the intruders with a pistol and one of them fell dead to the sidewalk. The others escaped.

Earlier Tuesday, Carl Benson 71, a door-to-door salesman, was killed by a Negro in a street shooting.

Most of the violence involved rock-throwing and fire-bombings. Several police cars were stoned, and at least two had windshields broken.

The trouble was confined to a Negro area about two miles from the downtown casinos and about 3½ miles from the famed Las Vegas Strip.

Mayor Oran Gragson maintained a 7 p.m. to 6 a.m. curfew and a state of emergency, saying: "The area is not as quiet as I want to see it."

Mansfield Says President Never Gripped About Bills

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield says President Nixon has never complained to him about the performance of Congress—"he's been all sweetness and light."

Republican leaders who brought word of Nixon's displeasure about the legislative pace to Capitol Hill said the President will send Congress a message Monday to prod for action on his legislative program.

Mansfield said he "wouldn't be surprised" if Republicans were trying to fashion a 1970 campaign issue around charges that the Democratic-controlled Congress is footdragging.

Senate Republican Leader Hugh Scott said GOP motives were not political.

"It will be a sort of reminder message, not in any partisan spirit," Scott said.

The Nixon message, to be made public Sunday, will list the status of 40 proposals the administration has made to Congress.

No major administration proposal has become law. But Mansfield said most of the Nixon measures came to Congress late in the first place.

He said Nixon's legislative program was delivered about 90 days behind the schedule set during the first years of the Eisenhower and Kennedy administrations.

Sen. Gordon Allott of Colorado, chairman of the GOP Policy Committee, accused the Democrats of following a political course and trying to block Nixon plans.

"I think the gloves are off," said Allott. "The Democratic Policy Committee in the Senate and a shadow group in the House are now pursuing a straight, outright, blatant political course."

"There is no question but that the primary purpose of these groups is to discredit the President," Allott said.

President Of Lions
Makes Foreign Trip

SAO PAULO, Brazil (AP) — W. R. Bryan, president of the Lions International met Tuesday with Lions Club leaders in Sao Paulo, Latin America's biggest city.

Bryan, of Doylestown, Ohio, planned to make a similar visit Wednesday to Curitiba, the capital of Parana State, 210 miles southwest of Sao Paulo.

Mansfield denied that, and he said in an interview. "This is brushed off the balance of the Republican complaints. This is not a time for panic, we're all in this together."

Hold Hearing On Kennedy Arguments

BOSTON (AP) — The Massachusetts Supreme Court hears today arguments that Sen. Edward M. Kennedy's constitutional rights would be violated by a ban on cross-examining witnesses at an inquest into the death of Mary Jo Kopechne.

The senator was joined by nine others in his challenge of ground rules that Judge James A. Boyle of Edgartown District Court laid down for the proposed inquiry.

Miss Kopechne, 28, was found dead in Kennedy's car July 19 after it plunged into a tidal pond on Chappaquiddick Island. The inquest was ordered by Dist. Atty. Edmund Dinis, whose jurisdiction includes the island.

Boyle decreed that lawyers representing persons called as witnesses could accompany them to the courtroom, but would not be permitted to cross-examine.

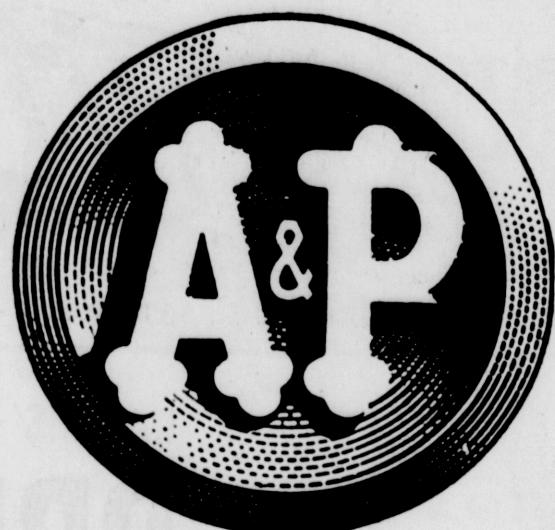

Edward B. Hanifv, counsel for Kennedy, argued this would deprive Kennedy and other witnesses of their rights in a proceeding which could lead to criminal court action.

Hanifv initially took his appeal to Justice Paul C. Reardon, who issued an order halting the planned opening of the inquest Sept. 3. Reardon referred the case to the full bench of the Supreme Court for hearing on the constitutional question.

O'Grady Urges Lower Ohio Voting Age

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — State Democratic Party Chairman Eugene P. O'Grady urged Ohio voters Tuesday to "give their full support to Issue One," the Ohio constitutional amendment to allow 19 year olds to vote.

In a letter to Ohio's 88 Democratic county chairmen, O'Grady said "Our young people are better educated than they have ever been, and they should be encouraged to participate in the ballot at a young age."

Monrovia Garden Club Holds October Meeting

Mrs. Francis Furniss was hostess in her home for the Monday evening meeting of the Monrovia Garden Club. Mrs. Joe Sheets, president, presided over the business session. Laura Long presented the devotionals using as her theme, "Autumn Leaves." Roll call was answered by the 25 members present naming an October symbol. Secretary, Mrs. Charles Fleming read a letter of appreciation from Orient State School for the club's help during its Fall Festival.

An invitation was read from the regional director, Mrs. Harry Smith, concerning the fall regional meeting of region 9. The meeting will be held Oct. 29 at the Chillicothe First United Methodist Church at the corner of Main and Brownwell Sts. on state route 50, Jackson County clubs will be hosts.

Mrs. Loring Stoor reported on the Historical Society meeting which she and Laura Long attended in Circleville recently concerning the landscaping around the building. The club made a contribution to the society.

Mrs. Allen Follrod reported on the club's planting at the Pickaway County fairgrounds and discussed future plans.

Mrs. Shirley Anderson presented a talk on the Witch Hazel, the tree of the month. Mrs. Otha Lewis brought an arrangement of chrysanthemums in a pumpkin with a witch accessory. Mrs. Loring Stoor brought an arrangement of bittersweet and cat tails in a bottle with a witch as an accent to the season.

Mrs. John Huffman and Mrs. John Dick appeared recently on radio station WCHO on Oct. 2, using as their topic "Bulbs For Spring Blooming." Plans were completed for a tour of German Village in Columbus on Oct. 7, and the window display for Pumpkin Show.

Members brought flowers, plants and bulbs for sale with Mrs. Donald Horner serving as auctioneer.

At the close of the meeting seasonal refreshments were served by Mrs. Furniss assisted by Mrs. Shirley Anderson and Miss Laura Long.

Pumpkin Pie Contest Plans Are Completed

The Bake-A-Pumpkin-Pie Contest arrangements have been completed for this year's Pumpkin Show. The contests will be held in the old Western Union office at 115 N. Court St.

Mrs. Robert Shadley, director and her assistant, Mrs. Joseph Gazdik, have announced that trophies will be awarded by Harden Chevrolet Co. and Radcliffe Cleaners to grand prize winners.

Premium lists may be obtained by calling Mrs. Shadley at 474-5286 or Mrs. Gazdik, 474-3470.

Included in the important rules is that pies must be only plain pumpkin filling with no decorations and the crust must be made from the entrant's own recipe.

All pies will become the property of Pumpkin Show Inc., and will be sold during the day and not auctioned at the end of the day as was previously done.

A dessert course was served to 17 members and 2 guests by the hostesses, Mrs. Lee Downs, Mrs. Stout and Mrs. Hott. The table was centered with an arrangement of autumn flowers made by Mrs. Frank Grice. Guests were Mrs. Bumgarner and Miss Mary Shortridge. Miss Shortridge became a new member.

The next meeting will be on Nov. 7 with hostesses, Mrs. Charles Taes, Mrs. Alfred Cook and Mrs. Walter Cummins in charge.

John Glenn Set As Top Speaker At News Meeting

MANSFIELD, Ohio (AP) - Former Astronaut John H. Glenn and $1,800 in prize money will be the top attractions at the Ohio Newspaper Women's Association's weekend meeting, opening Friday.

Glenn, who once ran for the U.S. Senate in Ohio and has indicated he may do so again, will be featured speaker at the association's Saturday night banquet.

Winners in the association's annual news writing contest are to be announced at a Saturday luncheon.

New officers are to be elected at a Sunday morning business session which concludes the meeting.

Fortner-Schmitt Rites Set October 26

Mr. and Mrs. John Fortner of Laureville are announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Naomi Ruth to Roger Schmitt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Schmitt of Cincinnati.

Miss Fortner is a graduate of Laureville High School and Columbus Business University. She is a key punch operator for the Ohio Department of Taxation, Columbus.

Mr. Schmitt is a graduate of Pleasant Hills High School of Cincinnati and has an associate degree in business administration from the University of Cincinnati. He is employed by National Chemical Corp. of Cincinnati.

The open church wedding will be Oct. 26 at the Laureville Church of God.

Black Travel Agency Established

By DEE WEDEMEYER
Associated Press Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — In Toronto the place to get soul food is the Underground Railroad. In Paris, try Haines and if you are looking for a bar with Aretha Franklin on the jukebox just follow an American serviceman. He'll get you here every time.

These are some of the tips for the black traveler from Pride, a black travel agency established here two months ago by Mel Johnson.

Johnson, a seven-year veteran in the travel business, said he discovered the special travel problems of members of his race while in Europe as a young serviceman.

"Always the black face was missing," said Johnson. "It soon dawned on me that the black man and woman was absent because he was protecting himself from the numerous inevitable social and personal indignities that awaited him at every known or unknown center."

Some 23 years later Johnson opened Pride to screen tour areas to prevent embarrassment for the black traveler and see that he does not miss points of black interest.

"You take him on a sight-seeing tour and then he asks, 'Man where are the brothers?'" said Johnson. "Where's the soul? You know what he means."

"We are not saying the guards have to be black at Buckingham Palace or we don't see it. But we want to show them where the black people live in London and special things like a black artist who might be exhibiting."

When Johnson and his assistant Ruth Givens are checking a potential tour site they make sure blacks are not ushered to inferior tables in restaurants, refused a room in a hotel or generally are not received coolly.

But most important, Johnson said, a tour with other blacks assures them of having companionship.

"A personal friend of mine went on a tour of Mexico with a white group for 16 days," he recalled. "No one asked her if she wanted to go out. They politely ignored her. It ruined her trip."

Most of Pride's first tours are going to the Caribbean which, Johnson said, now gets about 95 per cent of the black tourist trade. Miss Givens just finished checking out a Las Vegas - Honolulu-San Francisco tour.

And Spain, she believes, is on the threshold of becoming a popular place for black travelers because it is relatively inexpensive.

Johnson said the only place to which he won't arrange a tour is South Africa, where blacks are not allowed to travel, and to the southern American states, because Johnson feels he can't guarantee an embarrassment-free trip. He said he may arrange some trips to New Orleans for the Super Bowl this season.

Lima Police Eye Shooting

LIMA, Ohio (AP)— One man was shot and wounded while talking to police here Tuesday and Police Chief William Davenport said it was part of a "planned effort to intimidate police and the community."

Davenport said it was the fifth such shooting in recent days but that no arrests have been made.

Both rifles and shotguns have been used in the shootings but Davenport declined to speculate on who was involved or what the motives might be.

John Leptla of Wapakoneta, one of three men in a car stopped by police, was struck in the thigh by a rifle bullet as he talked with the officers.

Leptla was treated at a hospital and released.

Views on Television

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — "From Here to the Seventies" Tuesday night was a massive, one-shot effort by NBC News to provide an over-view of the direction and quality of life during the past 10 years and a preview—often a bit frightening—of the next decade.

It was a bold, almost presumptuous project, attempting to cram the significant events and trends of 1960-70 into 2½ hours. Most of the subject matter was familiar. But it never seemed warmed-over although individuals might argue over the handling of some events. It seemed to hustle through the Vietnam conflict while it lingered on and kept returning to youth in revolt.

It covered everything from the Pill and pollution to the Beatles and the Berlin Wall. It found time to examine pornography and the nudity vogue, and minutes later flashed a solemn roll call of major public figures who died during the period.

The theme was biblical—"There is an appointed time for everything"—and in keeping with these country-music times, there was often, in the background, the sound of a group singing a ballad. "Everything turn, turn, turn. There is a season, turn, turn, turn."

NBC commentators popped up in each segment with carefully prepared pieces that helped pull the wildly assorted subjects into some sort of focus. Ed Newman spoke of the new permissiveness on stage and in literature while standing on Broadway; Aline Saarinen talked of protein-starved millions from a market place in Colombia; Jack Perkins philosophized about youth while standing in a pasture amid the debris left behind the Woodstock rock music festival.

Paul Newman, presiding, narrated with professional skill and clarity.

Toward the end, David Brinkley had some thoughts about television's role.

"What television did in the sixties was to show the American people to the American people," he said. "It... showed a society that was in many ways looking better than any other but in other ways was not working at all. It showed a need for change and it showed the changes not being made."

One wished the program could have been shorter, that its editor had used a lighter hand with the tricks and tricky photography—interesting for those with color sets but disturbing and interruptive for those with black and white—and that the commentators had not sounded so piously preachy.

But it was altogether a magnificent job that accomplished something important in summarizing the period. More than that, it gave the viewer a look at the forest of the 1960s at a time when most of us are too close to see more than a few familiar trees.

Deputy Is Suspended In Scioto Jailbreak

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio (AP)—Scioto County Sheriff John Knapp has suspended Deputy Phil Meddock for two weeks, charging he was negligent in connection with the escape of four men from the county jail Sunday.

Charles Brunner, one of the escapees who surrendered to authorities a few hours later, pleaded guilty in Municipal Court Tuesday and was bound over to a grand jury on a charge of escape from confinement. The three other still are at large.

Highway Department Opens Bids On Major Projects

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Lake-to-River Highway (Ohio 11) came closer to completion today when the Ohio Department of Highways opened bids on one of the two remaining sections of the 93-mile project.

A. J. Baltes, Inc., of Norwalk, submitted the apparent low bid of $6.4 million for the 11-mile section between Ohio 82 and 88 in Trumbull County. The state estimate was $7.3 million.

The final section of the highway, a completely state-funded project, lies between Ohio 88 and U.S. 322 in Ashtabula County and will connect Lake Erie at Ashtabula with the Ohio River at East Liverpool.

Other major projects on which bids were opened included:

CLARK COUNTY — Engle Construction Co., MacArthur, submitted the apparent low bid of $1.3 million for relocating a section of Ohio 72 and constructing new grade separation in downtown Springfield. The state estimate was $1.4 million.

FAIRFIELD COUNTY — Great Lakes Construction Co., Cleveland, submitted the apparent low bid of $1.3 million for a 7.4-mile section of Ohio 256 to be realigned from Pickerington to Baltimore in Fairfield County. The state estimate was $1.6 million.

The Engle Co. also submitted the apparent low bid of $256,955 for construction of two bridges in Fairfield County. The estimate was $411,000.

PAULDING COUNTY — Miller Brothers Inc., Archbold, entered the apparent low bid of $406,340 for improving Ohio 111 by resurfacing for 7.4 miles; the state estimate was $555,000. Other projects involved only

Nationalist China Looks Anxiously To Future

Ohio License Revenues Rise

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio's license revenues and motor vehicle registrations will set a record during this registration year ending next Feb. 28, based on current operations, State Auditor Roger Cloud reported today.

Cloud said revenues for the period ended Sept. 30 amounted to more than $104.2 million, and registrations totaled 6,195,214. The revenues for the period were up $4.7 million, and the registrations up 428,447 over the same period last year.

USE THE CLASSIFIEDS

By LEONARD PRATT
Associated Press Writer

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — Chiang Kai-shek's government begins Friday its third decade on Formosa, proud of economic gains but concerned about its future role in the changing world.

The face of this island has changed greatly since the Nationalists retreated here in 1949 under the onslaught of Mao Tse-tung's Communist legions.

Taipei has grown from a small administrative capital with water buffalo in the streets to a sprawling industrial and commercial center of 1½ million, with broad avenues subject to traffic jams.

American aid has all but stopped, after pouring a billion dollars worth of military and economic aid into the island's economy.

Instead, Formosa now has its own aid missions in 25 African countries, one in Saudi Arabia and three in South America.

The Nationalists are buying their own military equipment now, to the tune of $58 million a year.

But one thing, at least, has not changed.

The government remains under the personal control of 82-year-old President Chiang and his son and heir apparent, Chiang Ching-kuo. They and their advisers in the inner Cabinet of the ruling Kuomintang party make all major government decisions, and their decisions are final.

Strict anticommunism, support of Chiang's government and verbal support of the long-promised return to the mainland are demanded from everyone.

Many who dissent leave the island or wind up in prison.

Within this framework the government has built a growing, liberally run economy with business-wise tax and investment policies.

This economy has propelled the island into a position more independent and more confident than the Nationalists have enjoyed since well before World War II.

Government spokesmen still seek to keep Communist China out of the United Nations, but there is no longer a desperate tone in their voices. They are sure they have the votes to deny Peking a seat for some time to come.

And the island's textile manufacturers, with government support, are resisting U.S. pleas for "voluntary restrictions" on Formosa's clothing exports to the United States.

Despite this confidence, the government knows it faces challenges new and different from those of the last 20 years. One is the problems of prosperity. Though a worker's take-home pay is the third highest in Asia, it is still less than one-third of his Japanese counterpart.

Officials are also concerned about a trend toward Japanese control of Formosa's economy. More than one-fifth of Formosa's exports go to Japan, and officials are worried that any shift in Tokyo's policy toward Peking would deny them a market for a large part of their exports.

Formosa's youth, with more money to spend than ever before, are undergoing some shifts of their own.

Most are studious, wearing uniforms to schools where they study hard for university entrance examinations. Some, with few scholarly ambitions, take to triple-exhaust motorcycles and long hair. About once a month, the Taipei police run a dragnet and provide some of the youths with free haircuts.

Under such strict regulations, many highly educated youths leave the island as soon as they can.

East Germany Parades Might; Allies Protest

BERLIN (AP) — Communist East Germany paraded its growing military might through 20th anniversary of the country's Soviet-oriented regime. The Big Three Western allies charged that the parade violated the demilitarized status of the divided city.

A statement issued by the United States, Britain and France charged that the parade "clearly demonstrates that this military display was condoned and permitted by the Soviet authorities."

Soviet Communist party chief Leonid I. Brezhnev and other orthodox Warsaw Pact leaders stood with East German leader Walter Ulbricht to take salutes as the army marched by.

"Such demonstrations," the Western allies said, "are in violation of the special demilitarized status of the city and are difficult to reconcile with Soviet claims regarding the peaceful nature of the East German regime."

There are currently an estimated one billion unfilled cavities in need of attention in this country, according to the American Dental Assn.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

Marriage Is More Than Gin Partner!

DEAR ABBY: I recently met a very charming 73-year-old widower in Florida. (I am a 70-year-old widow.) It was a whirlwind romance and we married shortly after. Herbert is very well-to-do, but that is not the reason I married him.

The problem is that Herbert told me nothing at all that he had had surgery six years ago and all he could offer me was "a lovely home and a gin rummy partner."

Please don't get the idea that I think "sex" is everything in marriage, but I am a very youthful 70, and I was looking forward to a little more than a lovely home and a gin rummy partner.

I don't want to disgrace my children and grandchildren with a divorce. Herbert laughingly said, "If you got yourself a boyfriend, I wouldn't divorce you as long as I didn't find out about it." What should I do?

MISLED

DEAR MISLED: Most women of 70 who marry a man of 73 would be content with a lovely home and a gin rummy partner, but if you are not, don't worry about "disgracing" anyone. See a lawyer about an annulment. You have legitimate grounds.

DEAR ABBY: I am writing this for myself and a lot of my girl friends.

There is a woman in town who is married and has small children. Her husband works nights, and while he is working this lady runs around with other men. (We know this is true because our parents have told us so.)

FBI Agent Says Tinger Wanted Deal

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—An FBI agent told a jury Tuesday that Richard Lee Tinger did not confess to the murders of two Columbus teen-agers because he hoped to "make a deal to beat the chair."

The testimony closed the state's case against Tinger, being tried for first-degree murder in the slayings of Susan Pack, 18, and James Stevens, 14, during a robbery last Oct. 20 at a dairy store.

Agent Robert Harvey of Oklahoma City told the court that Tinger, 28, refused to sign a confession after he was arrested at a Dill City, Okla., ranch May 19.

Harvey testified: "He (Tinger) said he saw no reason why he should make a confession to the FBI; that if he was going to make a confession he would wait until he returned to Ohio where he could make a deal to beat the chair."

Tinger also is being tried on a charge of assault with intent to kill in the beating of Phyllis Crow, 34, the store manager, who has been the prosecution's star witness.

told us to turn her down. No matter how many times we turn her down, she calls again.

We think maybe if she can't get a baby-sitter she'll stay home. If you put this in your column she might see it and take the hint.

HOPING

DEAR HOPING: Assuming your parents are right, it will take more than a "hint" from me, and repeated turn-downs from a long list of sitters to make this lady stay home, if she's inclined to run around.

DEAR ABBY: I am getting ready for a visit from my brother and his wife, and much as I love them both, I am dreading their visit. Why? Because they both smoke like every puff was their last.

After their last visit, I had to take EVERYTHING out of the bedroom they occupied and air it two days running. Even the draperies, mattress and pillows! A strong odor of stale cigarettes still persisted so I searched and searched and finally found an ashtray full of cigarette butts in a DESK DRAWER!

I have come up with an idea: The next time we go to visit THEM I will take along several strong onions and I'll carry a slice of raw onion with me to the breakfast table and make them inhale it with their breakfast. I would carry a slice of onion with me into every room of their house and also into their car. And upon leaving

I'd "hide" slices of raw onion all over their house. Then they would know what it's like to try to eliminate an offensive odor which has permeated everything. What do you think?

LOVES FRESH AIR
DEAR LOVES: I think they deserve it. But I'm betting against your ability to be that rude.

CONFIDENTIAL TO LILA.
Beware of that guy with the "intoxicated kisses." He could be mixing his drinks.

Negro Mayoralty Candidate Loses Election In Atlanta

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — A liberal Democrat and a moderate Republican will vie in a runoff election for mayor of Atlanta Oct. 21 as the bid of the first Negro in modern times to seek the office fell short.

However, a Negro attorney, Maynard Jackson, won the post of vice mayor now held by the leading mayoralty candidate, Sam Massell.

Massell, 42, rode a surge of Negro votes to the top of the seven-man ticket ahead of Alderman Rodney Cook, 45, the only Republican in the nonpartisan election.

Massell picked up many Negro votes counted on by Dr. Horace Tate, the lone Negro in the race, who finished third.

Conservative Alderman G. Everett Millican, 72, who ran second before the dominantly Negro precincts began to come in, finished fourth. Millican had run on a law-and-order platform.

Jackson, who ran against U.S. Sen. Herman Talmadge last year, was the first Negro to seek the vice mayor's post. He was pulling steadily ahead of Alderman Milton Farris.

With all 149 precincts reporting, Massell had 29,971 votes to 25,830 for Cook. Tate had 22,193 and Millican 17,481.

Jackson led Farris 50,619 to 34,315.

Three other candidates in the mayor's race picked up a few hundred votes among them.

Tate, 46, head of a statewide organization of Negro teachers and a member of the Atlanta school board, apparently was the victim of a split in the Negro vote. Also, voters turned out in fewer numbers than had been expected.

How Weather Looks Today

OHIO WEATHER SUMMARY
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Official Weather Bureau summary for Ohio:

Showers and light winds Tuesday night combined to form fog in many of the river valleys in southeastern Ohio.

Cool air continued to move into the state, supporting patches of cloudiness.

The clouds prevented temperatures most places from falling out of the 50s.

Wednesday over Ohio was expected to be cool with high temperatures ranging from the mid 50s to the middle 60s; and Wednesday night lows falling into the 40s.

Sunshine Thursday will produce slightly warmer temperatures. Better warming will occur with fine fall weather and highs reaching into the upper 60s and lower 70s.

Lows tonight will fall into the 40s.

There was a chance of a few showers near Lake Erie today and in the northeast portion of the state, possibly into tonight. Otherwise, there is little threat of showers through Friday.

FORECASTS —
OHIO — Fair south and partly cloudy north tonight. Continued cool. Lows tonight in the 40s. Thursday sunny south, partly cloudy north and a little warmer.

NORTHWEST OHIO — Considerable cloudiness and cool tonight. Lows in the low to middle 40s. Thursday partly cloudy and cool. High in the 60s.

CENTRAL, EAST CENTRAL OHIO — Variable cloudiness tonight and cool. Lows in the mid to upper 40s. Thursday partly cloudy and cool. High in the mid 60s.

SOUTHEAST OHIO — Variable cloudiness and cool tonight. Lows in the mid 40s. Thursday partly cloudy and cool. High in the mid 60s.

SOUTHWEST OHIO — Fair and cool tonight. Lows in the mid to upper 40s. Mostly sunny and a little warmer Thursday. High in the mid 60s.

OHIO FIVE-DAY FORECAST
Temperatures will average a little below normal Thursday through Monday. Highs will average in the 60s and lows from the upper 30s northwest to the mid 40s southeast. There will be a warming trend about Friday but it will turn cooler again over the weekend. Precipitation will total .5 to one inch over the weekend.

PICCA Plans Reorganization
Pickaway County Community Action met Monday evening in St. Paul's A.M.E. Church. Members agreed to meet Nov. 3 for reorganizing. A Halloween party will also be held for the children.

Grocery Workers Approve Contract
AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Acceptance of a new three-year contract by A&P grocery clerks has signalled the first break in a strike by 3,000 clerks against six supermarket chains in a nine-county area of northeast Ohio.

A spokesman for Local 698, Retail Clerks Union said acceptance by the 600 A&P clerks Tuesday meant that they would return to their jobs today throughout the area.

Details of the new contract were not disclosed.

GOP Poverty Plan In Trouble

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House is heading for a building fight over antipoverty legislation in which the Nixon administration will have the support of only a handful of Republican members.

Faced with the need to line up at least 60 of the 188 House Republicans behind its bill to continue the antipoverty program unchanged for two more years, the administration was able to come with only 18.

As a result, Democrats on the Education and Labor Committee who were prepared to go along with the administration planned to write their own bill. It could add as much as $1 billion to President Nixon's request for antipoverty funds.

The shape of the impending battle was outlined Tuesday when the Education and Labor Committee took up the administration bill, delayed for months while the White House sought GOP votes.

Although a majority of the Republican members were prepared to vote for the bill in the committee, lack of support among the general GOP membership would doom it on the floor.

Most Republicans—and a large number of conservative Democrats—favor trimming the program and turning much of it over to the states.

Chairman Carl D. Perkins, D-Ky., has refused to let the administration bill out of the committee. "We don't have the votes," he told the Democrats. "The Republicans will support it in committee and gut it on the floor."

Since there is no chance to get the administration bill passed, he said, the committee should try to write a bill on which it can agree. But Rep. Albert H. Quie, R-Minn., who leads the fight to enlarge state control over the antipoverty program, refused to offer his amendments in committee.

"The fight is going to be on the floor anyway," he said. "Why waste the time here?"

"If the Republicans follow the practice of no amendments in

George Wallace In White House

WASHINGTON (AP) — Pat Nixon met George Wallace at the White House—but it wasn't the 1968 presidential candidate from Alabama.

It was an 18-year-old Hope, Ohio, youth, one of five outstanding 4-H Club members who presented the first lady a report on their activities. Young George told Mrs. Nixon jokingly, "I'm the only George Wallace to make the White House."

Study Referendum On Fair Housing

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP) — A hearing on the proposed referendum election on Middletown's fair housing law will be held Friday in U.S. District Court.

The ordinance, passed by the city commission Dec. 23, 1968, forbids discrimination as to race, creed or color in the sale or financing of property.

Showers Fall In Northwest

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Showers fell in the Northwest and along the East Coast today, but skies were cloudless over most of the interior part of the nation.

Rain in heavy amounts accompanied high winds in some spots in the Pacific Northwest. During a six-hour period nearly 2½ inches inundated Brookings, Ore., while Eureka, Calif., and North Bend, Ore., received about an inch.

Gale warnings were posted along the Washington coast.

In the East, showers splattered sections from New England to the central Gulf Coast.

Temperatures were mostly cool across the nation, and the weather bureau warned of frost or freezing conditions in the central sections of the Dakotas.

In the early morning, temperatures ranged from 26 at Dickinson, N.D., to 80 at Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

Dayton Students Face Discipline

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Twenty-nine white students boycotting classes at predominantly black Roth High School faced possible disciplinary action today.

The students, more than half of the approximately 50 white students attending the school, said they feared being beaten by blacks at Roth.

Principal William M. Scott said the students withdrew nine days ago and that no action would be taken against them for 10 days. The 10-day period expires today.

Haynsworth Faces More Conflict Of Interest Trouble

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Robert P. Griffin of Michigan, the assistant Senate Republican leader, announced today he will vote against confirmation of the nomination of Judge Clement F. Haynsworth to the Supreme Court.

Griffin said he told President Nixon of his decision in a letter Monday.

It could strike a severe blow to the administration bid for approval of the embattled nominee.

Griffin would not disclose the contents of his letter to Nixon.

But as the Senate Judiciary Committee met in closed session on the struggle over Nixon's choice to succeed Associate Justice Abe Fortas, who resigned under pressure over his outside activities, Griffin declared that "legitimate and substantial doubt has been raised" about Haynsworth's sensitivity "to the high ethical standards."

"Public confidence in the Supreme Court is the overriding consideration," the Michigan senator said.

Griffin who was a leading

Senate critic of Fortas, is known to have urged Nixon to withdraw the nomination.

He had announced earlier he would reluctantly support the Haynsworth nomination.

He indicated that disclosure of Haynsworth's business interests, while serving as a U.S. circuit judge, had led to his reversal.

Ironically, Griffin is in a key spot now as a member of the Senate Judiciary Committee. He took the post at administration urging, because the Justice Department was anxious that the new GOP committeeman be a Haynsworth supporter.

Sen. Birch Bayh, D-Ind., the leading opponent of the nomination, said there was a "clear conflict of interest" when Haynsworth ruled on a case before the 4th U.S. Court of Appeals in 1967 involving W. R. Grace Co. Bayh said Haynsworth owned thousands of dollars worth of Grace stock at the time.

The charge was denied by Sen. Ernest Hollings, D-S.C., who said the stock holdings were not substantial enough to require Haynsworth to disqualify himself.

Bayh's latest charge is the third such case in which Haynsworth has been accused of conflicts of interest for making a ruling while holding a financial stake in one of the parties before his court. It was included in a "bill of particulars" worked up by Bayh's staff for the Judiciary session.

"Sen. Bayh feels this case is not a landmark, but it is significant because it fits the pattern the judge has set," said a spokesman for the Indiana Democrat.

Meet The Tigers

Mark Davey (75) is a sophomore and Gary Owens (83) a junior on the Circleville High School football team. Davey is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Cupp, 1231 S. Pickaway. Owens is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Owens, 505 N. Pickaway.

Vikings, Mustangs Home; Logan Elm On Road

In area games this week Teays Valley will be home to Dublin and Westfall will entertain the West Jefferson Roughriders. Logan Elm will travel to Unioto for a Scioto Valley Conference fray.

Teays Valley will play host to the Dublin Shamrocks on Friday night in a Metropolitan League contest.

Dublin, with a record of 3-2, is small in size but has good speed and quickness. Using a wing T offense and a 6-2 defense they are tough to control.

Coach Kidwell said the Teays Valley offense is beginning to jell and could be at its peak this week. He said "Our defense is good and was exceptionally good last week. We just haven't had any breaks in our last two ball games."

DON Stir, tackle, has a bad knee and probably will not see any action. The slug bug has hit the squad but they are coming out of it.

The starting Viking offense will be: John Tucker and Jeff Helser at the ends; Mike Mapes and Jack Brinker, tackles; Chuck Frazier and Harry Meek guards; Mike Schiff at center; Stan Clay, quarterback; Ron Crosby, fullback; Bob Tucker, tailback; Dan Hicks, halfback.

Unioto is unbeaten. With only two on the coaching staff Logan Elm has no opportunity to scout opposing teams.

The only information Coach Marcus Albright has about the Shermans is what he could glean from a film of the Unioto-Adena game which he received in trade for a Logan Elm film.

SPORTS Highlights

CINCINNATI (AP) — One of the nation's top college kickers isn't very impressed with soccer-style booting.

"I don't think the soccer kickers are that much better," said Jim O'Brien of the university of Cincinnati, the nation's leading major college scorer in 1968. "They just stand out more."

"I've tried kicking that way, mostly to strengthen my leg. I can see where they get the power, but I question if they're more accurate. I'd say I can hit 5 out of 7 from 40 to 50 yards and they aren't much better than that."

NEW YORK (AP) — San Diego and Denver, which share the bottom rung in the American Football League's Western Division standings, surprisingly enough lead the league in a variety of important team offensive statistics.

Each has a 2-2 record, but Denver leads the league in touchdowns with 13, AFL statistics released today show.

NEW YORK (AP) — O. J. Simpson, Buffalo's high-grade Orange Juice who poured through the Denver defense for 110 yards the previous week, was bottled up last Sunday by Houston—and the cork was outside linebacker George Webster. For his efforts in Houston's 28-14 victory, Webster was named today as The Associated Press' Defensive Player of the Week in the American Football League.

Nevele Pride May Be Done; Pulls Up Lame

NEW YORK (AP) — The racing career of Nevele Pride, the world's fastest trotter at one mile with a 1:54 4-5 clocking, is believed over.

The New York connections of the Harness Horse of the Year for 1967 and 1968 were not available for comment Tuesday night on the report from Montreal that Nevele Pride had pulled up lame after a workout.

Mike MacCormac, director of racing at Blue Bonnets, said Nevele Pride had been withdrawn from a $2,000 trot at the Canadian track scheduled for Sunday, Oct. 19 because of the mishap.

"It came as a complete surprise to us," MacCormac said. "Stanley Dancer called me and said that the horse pulled up lame and, in the best interests of the horse, it was decided to retire him immediately."

It was expected that official announcement of the retirement will be made at a press conference Thursday.

Dancer, of New Egypt, N.J., is the driver and trainer of Nevele Pride owned by the Nevele Acres and Lou Resnick of Elmhurst, N.Y.

They had planned to campaign the colt for the remainder of the year with the hope of his becoming the first trotter to win a million dollars. The son of Star's Pride-Thankful, was scheduled to be retired for breeding purposes after the 1969 campaign.

Nevele Pride's current earnings are $871,738, second to the $885,171 hung up by Su Mac Lad before his retirement five years ago. Cardigan Bay, a pacer, became harness racing's first millionaire last year before his retirement.

Nevele Pride was upset by Une de Mai, a French mare, in the $100,000 Roosevelt International Trot at Roosevelt Raceway in Westbury, N.Y., at 1 1/4 miles last August 23.

It was eight days later, Sunday, Aug. 31, at Indianapolis that Nevele Pride went for the world mile trotting record in a time trial—and made it.

Zelmo Beaty Joins ABA's LA Stars

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Strategy of the young American Basketball Association in its war against the Establishment closely resembles that of its football brethren with the latest skirmish landing Zelmo Beaty on a four-year contract.

The 6-foot-9 veteran center of the Atlanta Hawks signed with the Los Angeles Stars of the ABA and announced Tuesday he would sit out the coming season.

His ABA pact starts with the 1970-71 campaign since the National Basketball Association club holds an option on his services this year.

General Manager Jim Hardy and owner Jim Kirt of the Stars both admitted they expect a future merger with the NBA, but with two clubs in Los Angeles—the Stars and the NBA Lakers owned by Jack Kent Cooke.

In Beaty, the Stars landed the No. 2 scorer and top rebounder of the Hawks, who only last year moved from St. Louis to Atlanta and reached the Western Division finals before being defeated by the Lakers.

"Security," said Beaty was the reason he jumped from the establishment to the newer ABA. Already the young league had signed Billy Cunningham of the Philadelphia 76ers to a Carolina contract starting in 1971 and Dave Bing of Detroit to a Washington pact for next year.

In addition, the ABA has signed four top NBA officials for the coming campaign.

NFL Individual Data Shows Some Changes

NEW YORK (AP) — The National Football League had new individual leaders in passing, scoring and pass receiving but Calvin Hill, Dallas' Ivy League rookie, was still the top man in rushing.

The running back from Yale played only the first half against Philadelphia last Sunday when an ankle injury sidelined him. But in that half, he carried 10 times for 91 yards and a touchdown, caught three passes for 71 yards and passed once for 44 yards.

Hill, according to NFL statistics released today, has rolled up 299 yards in 51 attempts for a 5.9 average per rush.

The new leaders are kicker Fred Cox of Minnesota, scoring, with 24 points; Roy Jefferson of Pittsburgh in pass receiving with 20 receptions, and Craig Morton of Dallas in passing,

Hodges May Use Platooning Against Orioles

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Mets who scored 27 runs on 37 hits against the Atlanta Braves won't all be in the starting lineup against Baltimore in the first two stages of the World Series.

While nothing may succeed like success, Manager Gil Hodges of the Mets has his own method of achieving it. It's called platooning. So, with Baltimore opening the series Saturday and Sunday with left-handers Mike Cuellar and Dave McNally, Hodges has decided to counter with his right-handed lineup if Ron Swoboda, Donn Clendenon, Ed Charles and maybe Al Weis.

Of the four, Weis was the only one to get into a game against Atlanta's three right-handed starting pitchers. He was a defensive replacement and went hitless in one at bat.

Replacing them on the bench will be: Right-fielder Art Shamsky the top hitter in the series with seven hits in 13 at bats after hitting a powerful .300 during the regular season.

Second baseman Ken Boswell, a late season hero who hit .279 and then was 4-for-12 against the Braves, including a two-run homer and run-scoring single in the finale.

Third baseman Wayne Garrett, a .215 hitter during the regular season who came through with 5-for-13 against Atlanta, including a two-run homer that put the Mets ahead to stay in the clincher.

And first baseman Ed Krane-pool, a .238 performer during the season and 3-for-12 in the playoffs.

Swoboda, in right field, was another hero down the stretch, finishing with a .235 average, driving in 52 runs in only 327 at bats. Clendenon, at first base, hit .248 with 16 home runs and 51 RBI in only 331 at bats.

Weis, at second base, hit only .215 with little power, and Charles, at third base, managed only a .207 average.

However, Hodges said today that because Cuellar throws a screwball that makes him very effective against right-handers, he might make a platooning exception and stick with Boswell instead of switching to Weis.

Like all but one of the Mets, the four would be starting their first World Series. Only reliever Ron Taylor has played in the classic, with the 1964 St. Louis Cardinals. That, however, does not include Hodges and the coaching staff.

Hodges was in seven series as a player and coach Yogi Berra was in 13 as a player and one as a manager. Coaches Rube Walker and Joe Pignatano were in one each.

Hodges will stick with the rest of the lineup that bombarded Atlanta — Tommie Agee, Cleon Jones, Jerry Grote and Bud Harrelson, all right-handed hitters.

Brooks Robinson Not Fazed By New York Mets Stars

BALTIMORE (AP) — Brooks Robinson of the Baltimore Orioles has read a lot in recent weeks about the New York Mets and their ace pitchers.

Tom Seaver and Jerry Koos-man. As for Seaver, who won 25 games, and Koosman, a 17-game winner, Robinson tried to put them in the proper perspective.

"I hit against them in spring training and in the All-Star game," he said, "and they're terrific pitchers as good as anybody in our league."

"I don't mind telling you, I was a little scared going out to play the Los Angeles Dodgers in the 1966 World Series. But we beat those two guys (Sandy Koufax and Don Drysdale), and these guys can't be as good as them."

Robinson said he is no longer bothered by the publicity given New York players, whereas he would have been five or six years ago.

"After you've been around awhile," he said, "you realize that being in New York a player gets the best of it. Some of them aren't as good as they're made out to be."

Baltimore's American League champions have been installed as the 8-5 favorite. But, Robinson discounts this, too.

"Being the favorite doesn't mean anything," he said. "You're the favorite because they look at what you did before. Rod Carew was the American League batting champion. How many hits did he get in the playoffs? One?"

Carew, who hit .332 during the regular season, beat out an infield hit in his first at-bat in the playoffs and then went 0-for-14 Tuesday.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of Walter
Hunter who passed away one year ago, October 5, 1968.
A year has passed since that sad day.
The one we loved, was called away.
Gone is the face we loved so dear, and silent the voice, we loved to hear.
The word has never been composed,
That could express his absence here
But he's not too far for thoughts to reach
There never was a husband and father loved more dear.
Sadly missed by Mrs. Walter
Hunter and children.

In loving memory of George
Marvis who passed away October 8, 1969.
He bade no one a last farewell.
He said good-bye to none.
His loving heart ceased to beat.
When they told us he was gone.
No one knows the silent heartache.
Only those who have lost can tell.
Or the grief we bear in silence.
For the one we loved so well.
Sadly missed by wife, Blanche and family.

TODAY In History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Today is Wednesday, Oct. 1, the 281st day of 1969. There are 84 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1871, the great fire of Chicago broke after a cow kicked over a lantern in Mrs. O'Leary's barn. Seven hundred people lost their lives and nearly 100,000 were left homeless.

On this date: In 1776, the Spanish mission at San Francisco was founded.

In 1820, King Henri Christopher of Haiti killed himself with a silver bullet when attacked by rebels.

In 1903, the United States and China signed a commercial treaty.

In 1912, Montenegro declared war against Turkey.

In 1934, Bruno Richard Hauptmann was indicted for murder in the kidnapping and death of the infant son of Charles A. Lindbergh.

In 1918, World War I hero Sgt. Alvin C. York killed 20 German soldiers in the Argonne Forest in France.

Ten years ago—A U.S. House subcommittee held hearings on charges that some major television quiz shows had been rigged.

Five years ago—The United States told the United Nations it would demand that the Soviet Union and nine other nations pay overdue U. N. assessments or lose their General Assembly vote.

One year ago—It was disclosed that allied ground sweeps in South Vietnam and in the southern half of the demilitarized zone had uncovered more than 150 tons of enemy munitions and supplies.

prescribed by the General Assembly. The term of office of all elective county, township, municipal and school officers shall be such even number of years not exceeding four years as may be so prescribed.

And the General Assembly shall have power to so extend existing terms of office as to effect the purpose of Section 1 of this Article.

Any vacancy which may occur in any elective state office other than that of a member of the General Assembly or of Governor, shall be filled by appointment by the Governor, the disability is removed, or a successor elected and qualified. Such successor shall be elected for the unexpired term of the vacant office at the first general election in an even numbered year after the expiration of the term of such office.

Any vacancy which may occur in any elective township or municipal office shall be filled by appointment by the governing body of such municipality, the disability is removed, or a successor elected and qualified. Such successor shall be elected for the unexpired term of the vacant office at the first general election in an even numbered year after the expiration of the term of such office.

Any vacancy which may occur in any elective school office shall be filled by appointment by the governing body of such school district, the disability is removed, or a successor elected and qualified. Such successor shall be elected for the unexpired term of the vacant office at the first general election in an even numbered year after the expiration of the term of such office.

Famed Movie 'Jungleland' To Go On Block Today

THOUSAND OAKS, Calif. (AP)—Forty-three years ago a young animal attendant for Universal Pictures built a few cages in a rural valley west of Hollywood, brought in some lions, and called it "Goebel's Lion Farm."

Louis Goebel's idea was to rent animals to movie studios, so they wouldn't have to keep their own menageries. Later, he sold tickets and let the public watch animal trainers at work.

His 27-acre complex, later renamed Jungleland, flourished. Here Tarzan pictures were made when Johnny Weissmuller was the star. This is where Dr. Doolittle talked to the animals.

Hundreds of movies, television shows and commercials used 1,800 animals of all varieties. Top lion and tiger trainers prepared their acts here.

But times and public tastes change. Where jack rabbits once hopped, housing tracts sprawl. A freeway bounds one side of the park. The Conejo Valley is now a booming Los Angeles suburb.

Come Wednesday, the ring of an auctioneer's hammer sounds the end of Jungleland.

The place is in bankruptcy. An attorney appointed to handle the case blames high insurance costs, dwindling attendance and "bad feeling" between Goebel—who still owns the land—and the latest of six sets of exhibit owners.

Except for the land, everything goes: animals, buildings, cages, ticket booths, trucks, filling cabinets, even hay and grain.

Auctioneer Al Silver estimates the value at $3 million and says, "We are getting inquiries from all over the world, from museums, zoos and circuses."

The list of animals reads like a roster of the ark: lions, tigers, leopards, jaguars, elephants, hippos, chimps, baboons, wallabies, monkeys, camels, goats, seals, deer, Brahma bulls, iguanas, zebras, bears, turtles, skunks, alligators, lizards, llamas, flamingos . . . and on and on.

Jungleland "doesn't blend in with the community now," says

Lee Johnson, executive secretary of the Conejo Valley Chamber of Commerce. "It has sort of deteriorated."

The attorney handling the bankruptcy says the place may be turned into a shopping center.

Solon Raps Welfare Study

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A survey of 47,000 welfare recipients has shown that more than half of them want a job, a joint House - Senate Committee on Public Assistance was told today.

Robert B. Canary, assistant Ohio welfare director, said the survey was made among aid to dependent children recipients 16 and over.

Of the 24,000 who are not employable, he said 8,000 are students, 7,000 are mothers with young children, and 5,200 are ill or disabled.

Rep. Thomas E. Hill D - 41 Cleveland, immediately took issue with the figures. "There are many other factors that must be considered," Hill said. "I don't think that figure would be anywhere near accurate."

Canary emphasized the survey included only 60 per cent of the total ADC recipients over 16. He said it was only 18 per cent completed in Cleveland.

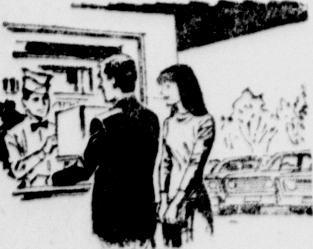

Medici President Of Brazil Now

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP) — Gen. Emilio Garrastazu Medici, a 63-year-old cavalry officer, has been named to succeed ailing President Arthur da Costa e Silva, Brazil's ruling military regime announced today.

The selection of Medici was made at a meeting of the armed forces high command Monday night but was not announced until this morning.

Medici, one of the nation's four regional army commanders, had been considered a top candidate for the post.
